Floyd County Launches New Website

Floyd County Government is thrilled to announce the launch of its new website, floydcountyga.gov. This new site allows for ease of access, more up-to-date technology, and a better mobile experience.

The site features simple-to-use engagement tools, better search optimization, and the ability to submit many documents and forms electronically. Visitors now have the ability to subscribe to receive new job posting notifications, news, announcements and more. The site also offers beautiful background images taken locally by photographers Ryan Smith and Jason Blalock that will rotate on the home page periodically.

County Manager Jamie McCord stated, "The COVID-19 pandemic has shown how critical the need for updated technology is. I hope that our citizens and visitors can easily navigate our new site and stay engaged with the many opportunities that Floyd County offers."

For more information or questions about the new website, please call (706) 291-5110.
